

Bill Caruso Analyzes Budget Shortfall, Other Issues on NJTV's "Political Roundtable" Show

Press Releases

05.05.2014

Bill Caruso discussed the week in politics with NJTV News Managing Editor Mike Schneider.

Topics included the state budget falling short on revenue projections, Gov. Chris Christie going to the White House Correspondents' Dinner, Christie's nomination of John Degnan as chairman of the Port Authority and Republican GWB investigation committee members wanting changes.

Click the play button above to view the video, or you can view the video here.