

States' Treatment of Ebola Nurse Puts Focus on Risk Analysis

Press Releases

11.03.2014

William Isele of Archer in Princeton, in Oct. 31, 2014, New Jersey Law Journal article on Ebola quarantine issue: "Sometimes, in the interest of public welfare, there has to be some public intrusion on individual civil rights, and the laws and the courts look to use the least restrictive measures to protect the public interest."
