Archer's Stephanie J. Zane, Esquire, has recently been appointed to serve a two year term on the National Program Award Committee for the American Inns of Court, which is a committee made up of 21 members from across the county. American Inns of Court (AIC) are designed to foster excellence in Professionalism, Ethics, Civility and Legal Skills. An American Inn of Court is an amalgam of judges, lawyers, and in some cases, law professors and law students. AIC actively involve more than 29,000 state, federal and administrative law judges, attorneys, legal scholars and law students. Ms. Zane is also currently a Master Member of the Thomas S. Forkin Family Law Inn of Court.

Ms. Zane has also been reappointed by the New Jersey Supreme Court Committee on Character where she is currently serving in her second term. The duty of the New Jersey Committee on Character is to determine the fitness to practice law of each candidate for Admission to the Bar of the State of New Jersey and thereby to promote the public interest and to protect the integrity of the legal profession.

Ms. Zane is a Partner in the firm's matrimonial and family law department. She has extensive experience in complex matrimonial litigation and her practice is focused on addressing all aspects of divorce, custody, child support (and related issues) and domestic violence litigation.
