

Archer's Carlos M. Bollar Appointed to Supreme Court Working Group on Judicial Participation at Fundraisers

Press Releases

02.06.2015

Carlos M. Bollar, a Partner in Archer's Haddonfield and Philadelphia offices, has recently been appointed to the New Jersey Supreme Court Working Group on Judicial Participation at Fundraisers. The purpose of this group is to explore potential modifications to the current Code of Judicial Conduct regarding judicial participation in fundraising events. The group will examine the current Code as well as the prior opinions of the Advisory Committee on Extrajudicial Activities, the New Jersey Guidelines for Extrajudicial Activities as well as a review of similar codes and guidelines from the ABA, all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

Mr. Bollar concentrates his practice on toxic torts, class actions, product liability matters and other complex disputes. Mr. Bollar handles toxic tort matters in all of the contexts in which they arise, including: single plaintiff cases, mass actions involving hundreds of plaintiffs and class actions. Mr. Bollar has litigated cases involving alleged groundwater, air and soil contamination, as well as vapor intrusion. Mr. Bollar has tried numerous contested matters in federal and state courts and has experience in all aspects of pre-trial and trial work.
