

Archer Welcomes Two New Associates

Press Releases

04.06.2015

Two new associates have joined Archer, one of the region's largest law firms, with eight offices in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and New York.

- M. Brian Hall will be practicing in Archer's Litigation Department, Construction/Real Estate Litigation Group in the Haddonfield office. Brian received his J.D., magna cum laude, and his Masters in Business Administration, from Rutgers School of Law, Camden. He was a member of the United States Army for five years as a Korean linguist, intelligence analyst and non-commissioned officer, and during this time he received his Associates Degree in Korean, with Honors, from the Defense Foreign Language Institute in Monterey, California. Brian further obtained his Bachelor of Science in Business Management from Hawaii Pacific University.
- Amy M. Kearney will be practicing in Archer's Real Estate Group in the Haddonfield office. Amy obtained her J.D. from Villanova University School of Law, magna cum laude, and her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, magna cum laude, from Monmouth University. Since 2003 she has concentrated her practice solely to real estate matters, having worked at Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney and Morgan Lewis & Bockius.
