Kenneth E. Ahl, a Partner in Archer's Philadelphia office will present a two hour live webcast, "Pre-Immigration Tax Planning: What You Need to Know in 2015 & Beyond", on June 5, 2015. In this webcast, a panel of key thought leaders and practitioners assembled by The Knowledge Group will provide an overview and discussion of the taxation regulations and discuss the latest developments you need to know in Pre-Immigration Tax Planning for 2015 and beyond.

Mr. Ahl will be joined by fellow panelists, Rich Williams, Senior Managing Attorney – Dentons, Tony Panebianco, Director of Family Wealth Strategies – Grassi & Co., Michael Ripp, Partner – Giordani Swanger Ripp Phillips LLP, and Peter Stratos, President – Stratos & Associates. These leading attorneys and skilled tax professionals will provide advice regarding federal tax policies, regulations, and requirements for residence applicants.

Some of the major topics that will be covered in this course are:

- Pre-Immigration Tax Planning: An Overview
- U.S. Federal Government Major Taxes
- U.S. Income Tax Resident vs. U.S. Income Tax Immigrant
- Estate and Gift Tax
- Pre-Immigration Considerations
- Foreign Tax Credit

- Possible Sanctions for Non-Compliance

Mr. Ahl's practice concentrates in the area of taxation and includes business and individual tax planning, estate planning, trust and estate administration and tax litigation. He represents numerous clients in matters involving international taxation, including tax planning for non-residential aliens, dual citizens, green card holders and U.S. citizens residing abroad. He frequently works with immigration lawyers to plan for the tax issues of non U.S. citizen clients both coming to and exiting from the United States. He is very experienced in dealing with the special tax needs of U.S. citizens and green card holders residing abroad. He has counseled numerous taxpayers on Offshore Account Voluntary Disclosure Initiatives.
