

Archer's Douglas G. Leney Chosen To Participate in Next Generation Program

Press Releases

07.28.2015

Douglas G. Leney, an Associate in Archer's Philadelphia office, has recently been chosen as one of 40 bankruptcy attorneys from across the country to participate in the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges' Next Generation Program. Fewer than half of the applicants to the program were selected to participate.

The Next Generation Program targets bankruptcy practitioners with five to 10 years of experience. During the NCBJ's four-day Annual Meeting in September, participants will have intensive learning opportunities with more than 20 bankruptcy judges and 10 senior bankruptcy lawyers. The program also features networking opportunities with other Next Generation lawyers and alumni.

To be nominated, the prospective program participant must:

- Have five to ten years of experience practicing law;
- Devote at least fifty percent of his/her practice to bankruptcy cases;
- Demonstrate legal excellence in the practice of bankruptcy law;
- Display a serious commitment to principles of civility, ethics and professionalism; and
- Demonstrate commitment to the continued educational development of bankruptcy professionals and to professional activities that will benefit the public, members of the bar and the court system.
