

Dan Farino to Appear on Wheel of Fortune's "Great American Cities: Philadelphia Week"

Press Releases

05.13.2016

Archer's Dan Farino will be one of 15 contestants from the Greater Philadelphia area to be featured on "Wheel of Fortune's" "Great American Cities: Philadelphia Week," which airs May 16-20, 2016. Dan's episode will air at 7:30 p.m. on May 20 on channel 6 ABC (time and station number may vary, depending on the region - check your local listings).

Dan was selected from hundreds of potential contestants at an open tryout in Atlantic City in September, 2015 to participate in a private audition in Philadelphia which included a written test, a mock game, and an interview. Two weeks later, Dan was notified that he would be one of the lucky fifteen to fly to Culver City, California to tape a Philadelphia Week episode.

Dan, who lives with his wife, Lisa, and their 2-year-old son, Bryce, has been an attorney in Archer's Environmental Law practice group since 2007. Dan concentrates his practice on complex environmental matters involving soil and groundwater contamination from underground storage tanks and surface spills, and has a wealth of experience in the defense of natural resource damages, toxic torts, product liability, property damage, and personal injury claims. Dan participates in the defense of statutory and common law claims involving state and federal laws in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and beyond, and has significant experience in multidistrict litigation. Dan also regularly advises clients regarding SRRA, TRSR, and ISRA regulations and obligations.

Tune in Friday, May 20 to see how Dan fared!
