

Shelley R. Smith Presented at the Philadelphia Business Journal's 2nd Annual Economic Forecast

Press Releases

01.13.2017

Shelley Smith, a Partner in Archer & Greiner's Philadelphia office, served as a panelist for the Philadelphia Business Journal's 2nd Annual Economic Forecast, recently held at the Loew's Hotel in Philadelphia. Ms. Smith participated on a panel of experts in economics, health care and government and discussed the road ahead for Greater Philadelphia business in 2017.

Ms. Smith is the former Philadelphia City Solicitor and is the City of Philadelphia's longest serving Solicitor. The half-day event consisted of various panel discussions, which looked at the major topics and concerns for the Greater Philadelphia Region in 2017. Discussions included what can be done to strengthen the region's economic and business identity, real estate challenges and opportunities, and the City and region's poverty and job challenges and actions that can be taken.
