

Jennie A. Owens Appointed to American Inns of Court Program Awards Committee

Press Releases

02.06.2017

Jennie A. Owens, an Associate in the firm's Haddonfield office, was recently appointed from among a large group of candidates to the American Inns of Court ("AIC") Program Awards Committee. The Committee has a positive and motivating impact on the AIC by identifying and recognizing outstanding Inn programs worthy of AIC's mission. The goal of the American Inns of Court is to inspire the legal community to advance the rule of law by achieving the highest level of professionalism, ethics, civility and skills.

Ms. Owens is an Associate in the Family and Matrimonial Practice Group. She has experience in all aspects of family law, including divorce, custody, support, domestic violence, and adoption. In addition, Ms. Owens is a Barrister member of the Thomas S. Family Inn of Court. She is currently serving a three-year term as a member of the New Jersey Supreme Court, District IV Fee Arbitration Committee. She is also currently serving a five-year term as a Commissioner of the Camden County Library System.
