Archer kicked off the law firm's Summer Associate Program on May 29 with the largest group of law students to participate in the annual program, the majority of whom are women. This year's summer class includes nine students from several different law schools. Archer's Summer Associate Program provides a wide range of opportunities for accomplished law students to gain real world experience working with attorneys, staff and clients, as well as the opportunity to socialize with many of the firm's lawyers, professionals and staff.

Throughout the nine-week program, students begin to discover what practice areas they enjoy most and what aligns best with their strengths and interests. Each Summer Associate gets paired with a full-time Associate who serves as a mentor, advising on research techniques, case preparation and other legal matters. The law students also accompany and observe Archer attorneys at proceedings such as real estate closings, mediations, depositions, hearings, trials and client meetings.

Archer's 2018 Summer Associate Program includes:

Adetola Ajayi – Temple University Beasley School of Law

Nikia Clark – Rutgers Law School

Jordan Laporta – Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law

Isabel Naveira – Villanova Charles Widger School of Law

Dylan Newton – Rutgers Law School

David Smalls – Emory University School of Law

Nijgia Snapp – Rutgers Law School

Alexander Thompson – Rutgers Law School

Tyler Wicks – Seton Hall University School of Law
