Archer attorneys Carlton L. Johnson and Thomas W. Nardi participated in the Pennsylvania Bar Association’s 30th Minority Attorney Conference on October 4, 2019 in Philadelphia, PA. Carlton Johnson served as moderator and Thomas Nardi served as a panelist for the “CannaBusiness for Us” CLE presentation .

The 30th Anniversary of the Pennsylvania Bar Association’s Minority Attorney Conference was themed “Communities Under Attack: Leadership Going Forward.” The conference provided a wonderful opportunity for all attorneys to not only learn more and gain insight about the various minority communities under attack, but also gave everyone the opportunity to contribute their expertise for solutions to the problems. Besides that, the seminar provided excellent networking opportunities and the chance to earn a total of 9 CLE credits on leading topics of interest to the legal profession and the legal community.
