

Peter Frattarelli Presented at the NJBA's 2020 Legislative and Regulatory Update

Press Releases

09.22.2020

Peter Frattarelli, Partner and Chair of Archer's Labor & Employment Practice Group, spoke at the New Jersey Builders Association's (NJBA) "2020 Legislative and Regulatory Update," webinar on Monday, September 14, 2020. The webinar covered topics of legislation, regulations and court decisions relating to environmental issues and to the land development review process that continue to modify the legal framework within which real estate is developed. In his update, Mr. Frattarelli discussed changes to general business operations due to COVID-19 as well as legislation regarding health benefits plans and employment benefits.

Mr. Frattarelli regularly represents management and employers in labor and employment litigation and proceedings. He has extensive experience defending employers and individuals against harassment and discrimination lawsuits, as well as before state and federal administrative agencies.
