

Bill Caruso Named to InsiderNJ's 2020 "Insider 100: Policymakers"

Press Releases

10.16.2020

Archer partner Bill Caruso has been named to InsiderNJ's 2020 "Insider 100: Policymakers" list, the influential political news website's annual ranking of lawyers, activists, insiders, analysts, legislative staff members, and lobbyists selected for the rigorous quality of their influence on public policy.

Holding the #81 spot on the list, Bill's InsiderNJ description reads, "Critical to the advancement of pro-marijuana legalization legislation, the Archer firm attorney served nearly five years as the Executive Director of the New Jersey Assembly Majority Office in Trenton." Bill was also named to the list in 2017.

Bill is a long-time public policy adviser and founding member of the New Jersey United for Marijuana Reform steering committee and a board member for the New Jersey Cannabis Industry Association. Bill is part of a select group of attorneys chosen to advise the State of New Jersey on the intricacies of marijuana legalization, taxation and regulation.

In his practice, Bill represents clients that are both veterans and new leaders in the medical and adult-use cannabis industries, including retailers, processors, growers and ancillary businesses. Bill provides guidance on marijuana-related business issues, including issues pertaining to strategic planning and transactions, banking and finance, taxation, labor and employment, land use and zoning, real estate, municipal law, and healthcare law.
