Press Releases

11.30.2020

Archer attorney Bruce M. Gorman Jr. was recently elected to a two-year term as President of the Board of Directors of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Mercer County (BBBSMC). Bruce joined BBBSMC in 2009 as a big brother. In 2016, Bruce joined the BBBSMC Board of Directors, and served as Treasurer from 2017-2020. The Board of Directors provides support and oversight of the agency, in conjunction with the Executive Director, serving children and families in the Mercer County area.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Mercer County has served the Mercer County community for 47 years, providing services for at-risk youth – particularly those living in single-parent homes. A vital part of the social service structure of Mercer County, BBBSMC serves over 600 children annually.

Bruce is a member of Archer's Business Litigation Practice Group in the firm's Princeton, Hackensack, and New York offices. Bruce handles all areas of general commercial civil litigation, including business disputes, contract disputes, construction law, business torts, breach of warranty, insurance law, election law, antitrust law, labor and employment, and white collar defense. He has extensive experience in all areas of complex litigation, including motions practice, oral argument, e-discovery, depositions, trial practice, and appeals.
