Press Releases

06.21.2021

Archer attorney Eimi S. Figlio was recently elected Secretary of the Greater New Jersey Estate Planning Council. Eimi will serve a one-year term, beginning July 1. Eimi has been a member of the Council's Board having previously served as Trustee.

The Greater New Jersey Estate Planning Council, Inc. is a member of the National Association of Estate Planning Councils (NAEPC). The Council offers its members a forum at nine events each year through which they can learn from each other and from industry leaders about planning techniques, current events, and shared experiences pertaining to the many disciplines of estate planning.

Eimi's estate planning practice includes planning for both simple and complex estates. Her services include drafting basic and tax planning Wills, Durable Powers of Attorney and Advance Medical Directives, as well as preparing trust documents necessary to preserve family wealth and minimize tax consequences. Eimi also assists clients with gifting and transfers of family assets and closely-held businesses.

In the area of estate administration, Eimi's practice includes all aspects of probate matters, including intestacy proceedings, probate of Wills, marshaling estate assets, providing an inventory, preparation and filing of Federal and New Jersey and New York estate tax returns, preparation of formal and informal estate accountings, and the final distribution of estate assets to the beneficiaries and heirs of the estate. Eimi also assists clients with post mortem estate planning opportunities. Eimi also represents clients in matters regarding Trust administration and Trust termination.
