

Steven Mignogna is Editor and Contributing Author of Estate and Trust Administration Treatise

Press Releases

07.29.2021

Archer partner Steven K. Mignogna is one of the editors and contributing authors of the recently published NJ Estate and Trust Administration and Procedures Manual (2021), 2 Volume Bound Books and Reference CD. This revised treatise is now available from the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education.

This version continues to cover in detail the probate process and the administration of estates governed by wills or intestacy, and has been enhanced by increased coverage of the role that trusts play in the administration of assets at death.

A nationally recognized authority on estate and trust litigation, Steve serves as both Co-Chair of Archer's Estates and Trusts Department and Chair of the firm's Estate and Trust Litigation Group. He is the highly regarded author of the treatise Estate and Trust Litigation, also published by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education, and is a well-known speaker in the industry.

Steve specializes in commercial litigation, including litigation involving probate matters, estates, trusts, gifts, fiduciaries, guardianships, and real estate, handling cases in the state and federal courts, at both the trial and appellate levels.

Steve serves on the Advisory Committee of the Heckerling Institute. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC), where he is the ACTEC State Chair for New Jersey. Steve is also the Chair of ACTEC's Fiduciary Litigation Committee. The Camden County Bar Association named Steve as the 2020 Camden County Professional Lawyer of the Year.
