72,000+ sq.ft. remodeled space at former American Water headquarters will house 90 attorneys

Voorhees, NJ – Archer, one of the largest full-service New Jersey law firms, will move into its new headquarters in Voorhees, New Jersey in January 2022. The headquarters move from Haddonfield, New Jersey positions the firm for continued growth and expansion within a more collaborative, technologically advanced space.

Located at 1025 Laurel Oak Road at the former American Water headquarters, the revitalized 72,342 sq. ft. space will serve as the primary office for 90 attorneys and nearly 100 staff. Attorneys in the Voorhees HQ provide legal services across a broad range of practice areas.

“We are excited for our relocation and to be working in an innovative, thoughtfully designed space that reflects a dynamic new chapter for our firm,” said Christopher Gibson, President at Archer. “Archer has long-standing, deep roots in New Jersey, even as we expand throughout the Mid-Atlantic region, and we’re happy to continue to call New Jersey our primary home.”

“The firm is thrilled to welcome attorneys and our administrative professionals into a new, modern space adapted to both in-person and virtual styles of business,” added Stacey Sinclair, COO at Archer. “With the uncertainties of COVID still looming, great effort was made to spaciously design to accommodate social distancing, while at the same time incorporating technology to allow for a hybrid working environment.”

The revitalized, three-story building includes collaborative, tech-enabled workspaces designed to embrace the modern workplace. The Archer team and their clients will also have access to a host of on-site amenities, including a robust Conference Center, with space to hold gatherings ranging from large seminars to smaller, private consultations; and an elevated newsfeed video wall in the Atrium where employees can work collaboratively or grab a bite to eat. The building is designed around the impressive, three-story Atrium with skylights and a perimeter window line to provide the building’s exterior and interior with more natural light than a traditional office.

In addition to the new Voorhees office, Archer has more than 170 lawyers practicing across eight offices throughout the Mid-Atlantic region, including Hackensack, Princeton and Red Bank, New Jersey; Philadelphia and Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; Wilmington, Delaware; and New York, New York.
