03.14.2022

Archer, one of the largest full-service New Jersey law firms, and local officials celebrated the ribbon cutting of Archer's new headquarters in Voorhees, located at 1025 Laurel Oak Road at the former American Water headquarters. The new space serves as the primary office for 90 attorneys and nearly 100 staff.

Speakers at the ribbon cutting ceremony included New Jersey State Representative Louis D. Greenwald, Mayor of Voorhees Township Michael Mignogna, Voorhees Township Committee Woman Jackie Fetbroyt, and Archer Partner and Chair of the firm's Board of Directors Deborah Hays.

"For more than 90 years, Archer has served their clients and community with integrity and devotion," said Michael Mignogna, Mayor of Voorhees Township. "We welcome Archer and are proud they have chosen Voorhees as their new home."

"Archer has long-standing roots in New Jersey, and it is a great privilege to join the vibrant business community here in Voorhees," said Deborah Hays, Partner and Chair of Board of Directors at Archer. "Thank you to Mayor Mignogna for welcoming us with open arms. We look forward to deepening our connections with our new neighbors and getting settled into our brand-new, state-of-the-art office."

The firm's new space officially opened in December 2021. The revitalized, three-story building includes collaborative, tech-enabled workspaces designed to embrace the modern workplace. The Archer team and their clients also have access to a host of on-site amenities, including a robust conference center, with space to hold gatherings ranging from large seminars to smaller, private consultations; and an elevated newsfeed video wall in the atrium where employees can work collaboratively or grab a bite to eat. The building is designed around the impressive, three-story atrium with skylights and a perimeter window line to provide the building's exterior and interior with more natural light than a traditional office.

In addition to the new Voorhees office, Archer has more than 170 lawyers practicing across eight offices throughout the Mid-Atlantic region, including Hackensack, Princeton and Red Bank, New Jersey; Philadelphia and Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; Wilmington, Delaware; and New York, New York.
