Archer Partner, Anthony R. La Ratta, has been reappointed as Chair of the The National Conference of Lawyers and Corporate Fiduciaries: American Bar Association Section of Real Property, Trust and Estate Law. This will remain effective through the 2022-2023 bar year.

The National Conference of Lawyers and Corporate Fiduciaries is made up of a select group of representatives from both the American Bar Association and the trust division of the American Bankers Association. The National Conference was organized to address matters of common interest between the two associations, while helping to eliminate controversies, misunderstandings and litigations.

Tony concentrates his practice in the area of Trust & Estate litigation, with an emphasis on litigation involving probate matters, estates, trusts, guardianships, and fiduciaries. He is also admitted by the State of New Jersey to the roster of court-approved mediators for probate cases and has been appointed by the courts to assist in resolving such disputes through mediation.
