

Estate Litigation Seminar

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

04.18.2013

Location: Haddonfield, NJ

4.0 NJ/PA CLE credits including 1.0 Ethics credit

The seminar will feature a discussion of recent court decisions and other timely developments pertaining to probate, trust and fiduciary litigation. Topics such as: probate litigation as among New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware; common mistakes in probate proceeding; ethics and estate litigation will be discussed.

Who

Archer's Estate & Trust Litigation attorneys and a representative from the Office of the New Jersey Attorney General

When

Thursday, April 18, 2013 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

8:00 - 8:30 a.m. Registration & Hot Breakfast

8:30 - 9:30 a.m. Hot Trends in Probate Litigation

9:30 - 10:30 a.m. Key Differences in Probate Litigation as Among New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware
BREAK

10:45 - 11:45 a.m. Common Mistakes in Probate Proceedings

11:45 - 12:45 p.m. Ethics and Estate Litigation

Where

Tavistock Country Club, 100 Tavistock Lane, Haddonfield, N.J., 08033

Cost

Complimentary

This program has been approved by the Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board for 3.0 substantive and 1.0 ethics credit, totaling 4.0 CLE credits.*

Related People

Steven K. Mignogna

Partner

✉ smignogna@archerlaw.com

☎ 856.354.3024

Related Services

- Estate & Trust Litigation

© 2025 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.

