

Steven Mignogna and Anthony La Ratta Present “Hot Trends in Probate Litigation” for Burlington County Bar Association

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

03.13.2013

Location: Mount Holly, N.J.

Archer Partners Steven K. Mignogna and Anthony R. La Ratta presented “Hot Trends in Probate Litigation,” a seminar sponsored by the Burlington County Bar Association, on March 13, 2013, at the Burlington County Office Building in Mount Holly, N.J.

The panel of presenters also included the Hon. Karen L. Suter, Presiding Judge of the Chancery Division of New Jersey Superior Court in Burlington County, with Ethan J. Ordog, Esquire, of the Begley Law Group, as moderator.

Topics covered included: writings intended as wills, will contests, claims involving attorneys, elective share claims, intestate succession law & Social Security benefits, wrongful death damages, and revocation of trust by an agent. The session earned attendees credits toward continuing legal education (CLE) requirements for New Jersey and Pennsylvania attorneys.

Mr. Mignogna is Chair and Mr. La Ratta is a member of Archer’s Estate & Trust Litigation Group, which concentrates on litigation involving probate matters, estates, trusts, fiduciaries, and guardianships.

Related People

Anthony R. La Ratta

Partner

✉ alaratta@archerlaw.com

☎ 856.354.3094

Steven K. Mignogna

Partner

✉ smignogna@archerlaw.com

☎ 856.354.3024

Related Services

- Estate & Trust Litigation

© 2025 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.

