

William Isele to Serve as Moderator for Rutgers-Camden Law School Forum on “Death with Dignity Act”

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

03.27.2013

Location: Camden, NJ

Archer attorney William P. Isele will serve as moderator for a forum on the New Jersey Death with Dignity Act (A3328, S2259), which would permit certain terminally ill patients to self-administer medication to end life in a “humane and dignified manner.” Under the legislation, the Act would take effect only with voter approval in a statewide referendum. The forum is scheduled for Wednesday, March 27, 2013, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. in Room 106 of Rutgers School of Law-Camden. The panel will comprise both proponents and opponents of the bill.
