

Clint Allen to Present “Weathering the Storm” Seminar at New Jersey Institute of Technology

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

05.08.2013

Location: Newark, NJ

The law firm of Archer P.C. will present at the New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT) for those dealing with the aftereffects of Super Storm Sandy. “Weathering the Storm: Land Use Approval Process for Rebuilding Waterfront Homes and Businesses,” will feature Archer’s Clint Allen and Marathon Engineering and Environmental Services’s Lance Landgraf & Rick Ricciardi.

The expert speakers will provide affected residential and commercial property owners the opportunity to learn about land use regulations and insurance issues associated with the rebuilding process.

Archer is committed to doing whatever it can to help with the recovery from Super Storm Sandy. Please contact any of Archer’s offices for further information and assistance on how Archer can help with your legal needs in the wake of this devastating natural disaster. For more information regarding Archer, please contact Clint Allen, callen@archerlaw.com.
