

Carlos Bollar to be Moderator for “The Nuts & Bolts of The Appointment Process: New Jersey State Boards and Commissions” at the Hispanic Leadership Summit

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

09.28.2013

Location: Glassboro, NJ

New Jersey has a great number of boards and commissions that deal with virtually all departments and public policy areas to which the Governor and Legislature make appointments. Service on a board or commission is a great way to contribute to the state and your community. Boards and commissions are designed to give citizens an active voice in their government and provide a means of influencing decisions that shape the quality of life for residents in New Jersey.

Points of Discussion:

1. What types of boards and commissions are available?;
2. What is the process to be selected to serve on a board or commission?;
3. Is it worth my time?

Speakers:

Arlene Quiñones-Perez, Esq., Roberto Corrales, Carmen M. Garcia, Esq., and Andrea G. Orbe-Martinez

Panel Moderator:

Carlos Bollar
