

Andrew Fede to Speak at NBI seminar, “Practical Guide to Zoning and Land Use Law”

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

07.14.2014

Location: Princeton, NJ

Are you current on your knowledge of zoning laws? Can you confidently solve potential problems and ensure smooth zoning processes? Join us at this seminar where you'll learn to facilitate positive outcomes by understanding key components of the approval process, procedures for challenging a zoning decision, as well as requirements for administrative approach. Recognize constitutional limitations on zoning actions to ensure your actions are within the bounds of the law. Enroll today!

- Know the necessary steps - on a local, regional and state level - for obtaining a permit.
- Review the limits on governmental power so you know how takings and exactions must be handled.
- Fulfill your role in the process when a zoning case is litigated or when a decision is appealed.
- Stay in the loop in your community with a knowledge of local zoning issues, including economic development and smart growth.
- Represent your clients with confidence with an in-depth understanding of key zoning concepts.
- Understand the constitutional limitations on zoning so you can handle questions of eminent domain with ease.
- Know the steps you need to take to fight for your client during an appeal of an administrative zoning decision.
- Take your zoning knowledge to the next level with an in-depth understanding of the process for adopting and amending the zoning ordinances and map

Location:

Holiday Inn Princeton
100 Independence Way
Princeton, NJ 08540

Date: Monday, July 14, 2014

Time: 9:00 AM - 4:30 PM

For more information and to register, click HERE.

Related People

Andrew T. Fede

Of Counsel

✉ afede@archerlaw.com

☎ 201.498.8538

Related Services

- Land Use

© 2024 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.

