

The 7% Solution: Creative Strategies for Section 503 Disability Hiring Compliance

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

09.23.2014

Location: East Windsor, N.J.

Peter L. Frattarelli, Chair of the Labor and Employment Department of Archer P.C., will serve as moderator for a panel discussion at The 7% Solution: Creative Strategies for Section 503 Compliance. The daylong conference on disability employment outreach and hiring takes place at the Holiday Inn of East Windsor, N.J., on Sept. 23, 2014.

Presented by the New Jersey Business Leadership Network, the conference will provide important information for human resource, educational and corporate compliance professionals, as well as others with an interest in workforce development, management and inclusion.

Mr. Frattarelli will serve as moderator for "Exploring Options, Setting a Strategy," a panel discussion on disability employment, featuring experts from government and industry. Central to the discussion are new disability employment regulations for federal government contractors under Section 503 of the federal Rehabilitation Act. The new regulations establish a nationwide goal for federal contractors to employ qualified individuals with disabilities as 7% of their workforces.

The conference includes many additional speakers and sessions. For more information and to register, visit the New Jersey Business Leadership Network website.

Mr. Frattarelli represents and advises employers with respect to all aspects of workplace laws and regulations. His extensive professional and civic involvement includes serving on the Executive Committee of the Labor and Employment Law Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association.
