

Jeffrey M. Gradone and Alex Paul Genato to Present “Advanced Topics and Ethical Considerations for Property Tax Appeals” at the NJSBA Annual Meeting and Convention

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

05.14.2015

Location: Atlantic City

Jeffrey M. Gradone and Alex Paul Genato, Partners in the Princeton, N.J. office of Archer, P.C., will be on the faculty for Advanced Topics and Ethical Considerations for Property Tax Appeals, a continuing legal education seminar on Thursday, May 14, 2015, 8:00 a.m. to 9:15 a.m., in Atlantic City. The program is presented by the New Jersey State Bar Association and will be taking place at its Annual Meeting and Convention. The seminar will discuss advanced topics and ethical considerations in property tax appeal litigation.

Mr. Gradone concentrates his practice in the areas of local property taxation and eminent domain proceedings. A former clerk for Judge Harold A. Kuskin of the New Jersey Tax Court, Mr. Gradone prosecutes complex property tax appeals in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and other Mid-Atlantic and New England states. He advises clients regarding property tax issues and liabilities, and pursues property tax exemptions, abatements, and other incentives for real estate development projects. Mr. Gradone also handles a variety of complex condemnation matters on behalf of property owners and lenders.

Mr. Genato concentrates his practice in the areas of local property taxation, eminent domain, redevelopment, and state tax matters. He has handled matters involving all phases of property tax appeal litigation throughout New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Virginia, Ohio, Florida and various other states. Mr. Genato is regularly quoted as an authority on local property taxation in publications such as Bloomberg News, The Star-Ledger, The Philadelphia Inquirer, Hudson Reporter, NJBIZ, GlobeSt.com, examiner.com, and the Press of Atlantic City. He has also been featured or quoted in PCWorld, iPhone Life, The Modesto Bee, and The Las Vegas Review-Journal. After graduating from law school, Mr. Genato was a law clerk to the Honorable Vito L. Bianco, J.T.C. of the Tax Court of New Jersey. In this capacity, he assisted Judge Bianco in drafting the first published case in the nation to comprehensively address casino valuation.

Mr. Gradone and Mr. Genato are both members of the New Jersey Supreme Court Committee on the Tax Court for the 2014-2016 term. The Committee is comprised of members of the bench and tax bar as well as representatives of taxpayers' groups, local, county and state tax administrators and others concerned with the administration and review of the New Jersey tax laws. The Court relies on this Committee to provide well-reasoned, expert advice on matters within its general area of knowledge and responsibility.

© 2025 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.

