A Judicial, Academic, and Practicing Lawyer's Perspective

Thursday, October 22, 2015

6 to 8:30 p.m.

CLE: 1.0 Ethics Credit pending approval in NJ/PA

The Archer Women Lawyer's Network, Rutgers Law-Camden Alumni Association, Rutgers University Alumni Association, and the New Jersey Women Lawyers Association are hosting an evening of lively discussion on affinity bias in the legal profession. Offering their perspective on unconscious biases in the judiciary, in academia, and in private practice, our esteemed panelists include the Honorable Judith H. Wizmur; Chancellor Phoebe A. Haddon, Rutgers University-Camden; Debra S. Rosen, Archer; and Stella M. Tsai, Archer.

Moderated by Rutgers Law School Vice Dean Kimberly Mutcherson, the panelists will discuss the article "Know Thyself: Affinity Bias in the Legal Profession" co-authored by panelists Debra S. Rosen and Stella M. Tsai, recently published in the American Bar Association's journal, The Woman Advocate.

Earn a complimentary ethic credit, while listening to a discussion on how we can teach ourselves to recognize our unconscious biases and override them. Panelists will explore the scientific foundations for implicit biases, the effect in the workplace if those biases remain unchecked, and best practices for mitigating bias and promoting inclusion in the legal profession.

The evening will begin at 6 p.m. at Rutgers Law School in Camden, Archer Moot Court Room and Kugler Lobby, 217 North 5th Street Camden, New Jersey, with a networking reception. The panel discussion will begin at 7 p.m.

Free and plentiful parking at the Camden Technology Center Parking Garage located at 601 Cooper Street. For driving directions to campus please visit <http://www.camden.rutgers.edu/node/249>.
