This essential annual update will provide both transactional attorneys and general practitioners with key strategies to avoid ethics issues in transactional matters.

This popular annual seminar brings together top New Jersey attorneys to provide you with a virtual roadmap to deal with legal ethics issues in many different "transactional" practice areas. This year's program will include a presentation on How Transactional Lawyers Can Avoid Legal Malpractice which will provide a culmination of our discussions of the more specific areas of law. Don't take any chances in your practice - register today to learn what you need to know to avoid costly issues in the future!
