

Carlos Bollar To Be Panelist at Rutgers Law School Diversity Reception

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

11.20.2015

Location: Rutgers Law School–Camden

When: Friday, November 20, 2015 6:30 - 9pm

This Diversity reception is a chance to network with students and professionals while a group of panelists discuss diversity on the workplace. A wine & hors d'oeuvre networking reception featuring professionals from diverse backgrounds aimed at providing an informative discussion concerning issues of race, gender & sexual orientation in the legal profession, as well as information about various legal markets. Cosponsored by various student organizations at the Rutgers School of Law: WLC, BLSA, APALSA, ALIANZA and OUTLaws.

Carlos M. Bollar, a Partner with Archer, P.C., serves as President of the Hispanic Bar Association of New Jersey (HBANJ). In addition to its many initiatives, programs, and public advocacy activities, the HBA-NJ cooperates with other Hispanic bar organizations, with other Hispanic community, business, civic, charitable and cultural organizations, as well as with other legal organizations, in furtherance of the Association's goal of representing New Jersey's Hispanic legal community.

Richard J. Ramones, an Associate with Archer, P.C., recently won a contested seat on the Board of Directors for the Asian-Pacific American Lawyers Association of New Jersey (APALA-NJ) for 2015-16. In addition to his new role, Mr. Ramones continues to serve as an Executive Committee member for the Asian-Pacific American Bar Association of Pennsylvania (APABA-PA), a role he has held since 2011.
