

Thomas A. Muccifori to Present at “Demystifying Chancery Practice 2016” for BCBA

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

02.10.2016

Location: Mount Laurel, NJ

Thomas A. Muccifori, a Shareholder in Archer’s Haddonfield office, is a moderator and presenter at the Burlington County Bar Association’s annual seminar, Demystifying Chancery Practice. Mr. Muccifori is the head of the firm’s Trade Secret Protection and Non-Compete Practice Group and Co-Chair of the General Equity section of the Burlington County Bar Association. A popular program for the last 10 years, it features appearances by Presiding Chancery Judges who will discuss their particular general equity and probate practices and procedures. This will be a special opportunity to hear from different chancellors at one time. The event is being held on February 10th at Laurel Creek Country Club in Mount Laurel and runs from 4:00 p.m. – 6:15 p.m.

Some of the topics to be discussed include:

- What actions are cognizable in Chancery (and what actions are not)?
- How to properly present a TRO application by way of Order to Show Cause
- Will live testimony be required on a TRO return date?
- Being ready for a trial
- 10 things that irk a Chancery judge the most
