Speaking Engagements & Seminars

06.25.2019

Location: Mount Laurel, NJ

William J. Caruso, Head of Archer's Cannabis Practice Group, will participate at the Burlington County Chamber of Commerce event, "Legalized Marijuana in NJ: What's Next" on June 25th. The panel will cover topics ranging from the economic opportunities to the impact on medical marijuana and addiction.

William Caruso, is a recognized expert in state and federal Cannabis law, and has been an active advocate in the movement to end marijuana prohibition for nearly ten years. Mr. Caruso is a founding member of the New Jersey United for Marijuana Reform steering committee, a partnership of public safety, medical, civil rights, faith, political, and criminal justice reform organizations and individuals committed to changing New Jersey's laws to legalize, tax, and regulate marijuana for adults 21 and older. He is also a board member of the New Jersey Cannabis Industry Association, a nonprofit trade association dedicated to advancing the legalization of cannabis. As a government staffer and now as a lawyer and advocate, Mr. Caruso has been a leader in cannabis policy at the state and federal level for the last two decades.
