

Daniel Farino to Participate in “Hot Topics in Environmental Law” Panel at NJSBA’s 2020 Annual Meeting

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

05.13.2020

Location: Webinar

Daniel Farino, Partner in Archer’s Environmental Law practice group, will present “PFAS: Regulatory Status & Litigation Impacts” as part of the “Hot Topics in Environmental Law” portion of the panel “A 2020 Look at Environmental Law and Renewable Energy in the Garden State - A Two Part Presentation” for the 2020 NJSBA Annual Meeting.

Mr. Farino will join distinguished panelists to present the latest “right here, right now” issues impacting environmental law in the Garden State including compliance with environmental laws and regulations during the COVID-19 state of emergency, environmental issues arising in real estate transactions including impacts created by recent developments in applicable regulatory law, and an overview of the regulatory status and litigation impacts of PFAS in New Jersey and beyond.

What: NJSBA 2020 Annual Meeting CLE: Hot Topics in Environmental Law

When: Wednesday, May 13, 2020 5:00-6:45

Where: Webinar

NJ CLE: This program has been approved for 2.1 credits (50 minute hour)

NY CLE (Transitional & Non-transitional): 2.0 professional practice credits

PA CLE: 1.5 substantive credits pending ($4.00 check payable to NJICLE)

For more information and to register, click here.

Related People

Daniel R. Farino

Partner

✉ dfarino@archerlaw.com

☎ 856.673.3906

Related Services

- Environmental Law

© 2025 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.

