When: Wednesday, July 29th, 2020 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Where: Webinar

Overview: Keeping up to date with recent changes in New Jersey law is critical in order to effectively represent your clients. However, if you handle a broad range of matters, tracking the latest developments can be time consuming and tedious. Register today for this informative annual program to hear some of New Jersey’s leading authorities provide insight into the latest developments this year in their respective fields including presentations on newest developments in civil trial practice; the latest on cannabis in New Jersey, new developments in trust and estate practice; the MeToo movement and Immigration issues, the most up to date information on wage theft law, insight into the use of technology in your practice, plus a valuable presentation on ethical considerations in the practice of law.

Benefit from the experience and expertise of this panel, and quickly translate the knowledge you gain into effective strategies to handle a variety of cases. You’ll take home a comprehensive seminar handbook that can serve as a useful resource in your practice.

This program will be of particular interest to general practitioners, new lawyers and attorneys seeking to expand into new practice areas.
