

Andrew Fede to Present “Digital Signs and Billboards: Crafting and Enforcing Local Regulations” Webinar

Digital Signs and Billboards: Crafting and Enforcing Local Regulations

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

10.06.2020

Location: Webinar

Andrew T. Fede, Partner in Archer’s Hackensack office, will present the Strafford webinar, “Digital Signs and Billboards: Crafting and Enforcing Local Regulations” on Tuesday, October 6.

This panel will discuss the constitutional basis and limits of local regulation of signs and billboards--digital or otherwise--as well as signage zoning laws related to everything from noise to adult entertainment. After the presentations, there will be a live question and answer session with participants to answer questions about these important issues directly.
