- What are the key issues you need to know to remain successful in 2021...and beyond?
- What are the key strategies you need to know to avoid litigation and defeat challenging opponents?
- If you have to go to court what are the most effective approaches to take in your advocacy.

This annual seminar is the best way to stay up-to-date and learn the answers to these important questions. As an attendee, you’ll hear a comprehensive review of the recent cases you need to know, and their significance to your estate planning and estate litigation practices. An authoritative panel, including a Presiding Chancery Judge and two attorneys who specialize in estate litigation, will share their perspectives and experience and will provide you with strategies you can apply to the cases you are handling.
