

Steven K. Mignogna to Present at Rutgers University School of Law's Do's and Don'ts of Estate Planning

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

11.17.2022

Location: New Brunswick, NJ

Estate Planning is a topic that lawyers cannot avoid, whether as part of their own practice, or just fielding questions from family, friends and clients, or with regard to planning their own estates. This session will explore the fundamentals of Estate Planning and look at some of the latest topics as time permits. When things go wrong litigation might ensue. So the subject of estate litigation and avoiding such litigation will be discussed. Finally, the role of the Surrogate will be examined along with practical pointers on how to make things go smoothly with that office.

When: November 17, 2022 from 6:00pm - 8:35pm EST.

Where: This is an online event.
