About: CAPRE's Sixth Annual New Jersey Gold Coast Investment Summit will convene the most active developers, investors, debt sources, brokers, equity sources and consultants on March 13 for vital discussion, debate and networking. The summit, produced by Hoboken-based CAPRE MEDIA | CAPRATE EVENTS, is the premier annual gathering for Hudson County, known in recent years as "The Gold Coast."

As the Gold Coast continues to evolve with a new multifamily tenant base and firms absorbing new office space in Hoboken and Jersey, the summit will bring important trends, patterns, themes, including:

- New Jersey Gold Coast 360: How are Developers and Investors Approaching Hudson County and Growing Waterfront Submarkets in 2018?
- Middle Market & Private Capital Seek Opportunities: Analysis of this Rapidly-Growing Investor Class, Finding Deals & Working with Favorable Local Governments
- Constraints of Urban Development: Urban Planning, Resiliency & Creating Community
- New Regulatory Initiatives: Brownfield Remediation and Ground Water Standards
- Assets, Amenities, and Innovation: Property Management Workshop

- SoHoWest Case Study: South of Hoboken and West of Manhattan
- Gold Coast North: Finding Deals and Analyzing Demand from Hoboken to Fort Lee
- New Jersey Gold Summit and City of Jersey City Award Ceremony for Innovations in Public-Private Partnerships: Developers who are Reinventing the Urban Core
