02.27.2023

Archer & Greiner was recently honored with the 2023 Corporate Halo Award from the South Jersey Young Professionals Association (SJYPA). Archer was presented the award during the SJYPA's Annual Halo Ball at the Collingswood Grand Ballroom in Collingswood, NJ on February 25.

Each year, the SJYPA presents its coveted Halo Award to a corporation who exemplifies an extraordinary commitment to the betterment of South Jersey. Archer, with headquarters in South Jersey, was honored for its involvement in a myriad of charitable, civic, and business organizations. The firm has always considered dedication to the community an integral part of its mission.

SJYPA serves the needs of the South Jersey community by supporting local charities through donations. The financial gifts SJYPA presents to selected organizations are from the event proceeds. Proceeds from this year's Halo Ball benefitted the non-profit organization Fearless Movement. Over the last 12 years, SJYPA's Halo Ball has raised $655,000 for organizations in South Jersey.
