Press Releases

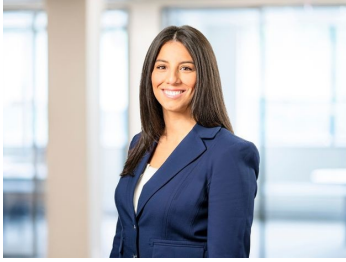

05.01.2023

We are pleased to welcome the addition of two new associates to the firm's Voorhees and Hackensack offices. Yvette Cave is a member of the firm's Labor & Employment Group. Rafael Llano is a member of the firm's Business Litigation Group.

Yvette C. Cave (Voorhees) – Representing employers in a broad range of labor and employment matters, Yvette provides employment advice and counsel to employers on issues such as employee discipline and termination, reasonable accommodations, leave entitlements, wage and hour issues, and human resource policies and handbooks. She conducts internal employment investigations on behalf of clients, makes recommendations, and prepares employer responses to administrative charges, including charges before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Yvette defends employers in a broad range of employment matters, including wrongful terminations, retaliation, harassment, discrimination, failure to accommodate, and wage and hour concerns. Prior to joining Archer, Yvette was an associate for a New Jersey law firm, where she concentrated on civil litigation, with a focus on general liability and insurance defense. Yvette received her law degree from Rutgers Law School. She is licensed in New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania. Click here for Yvette's complete bio.

Rafael A. Llano (Hackensack) – Rafael has a diverse commercial and complex civil litigation practice representing corporate and individual clients in a variety of matters, including contract disputes, breaches of employment agreements and restrictive covenants, consumer fraud claims, and shareholder disputes. He has also represented clients in insurance coverage and construction defect litigation. Prior to joining Archer, Rafael was an associate at a New Jersey law firm where he represented clients in insurance coverage and business litigation. Rafael is a Trustee of the Morris County Bar Association and member of the Young Professional Advisory Council of Homeless Solutions, Inc. Following law school, Rafael served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Michael C. Gaus, J.S.C., Superior Court of New Jersey, Essex Vicinage. Rafael received his law degree from Western New England University School of Law. He is licensed in New Jersey and New York. Click here for Rafael's complete bio.
