Estates of the Rich and Famous: Infamous Lessons

Both entertaining and informative, this program will examine the lessons to be learned from famous and often contentious celebrity estate disputes that have made headlines in the media. We will take a look behind the scenes into the lives, deaths, and probate battles of public figures such as Michael Jackson, Anne Heche, Prince, Robin Williams, Lisa Marie Presley, and more. This discussion will not only reveal the “inside scoop” on these flawed estate plans but also provide tips on how to overcome such pitfalls in the future. Anthony R. La Ratta (Moderator) Kelly M. Barry Matthew M. Nicodemo Andrew J. Cevasco Tara Hagopian Zane

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

Ethical and Practical Challenges for Trust and Estate Professionals in Dealing with Increasingly Diverse Clients and Colleagues

This program will educate trust and estate practitioners as to diversity, equity and inclusion among their clients and colleagues, to allow professionals to grow their practice and be more sensitive to ethics and inclusivity. Steven K. Mignogna (Moderator) Melissa Osorio Dibble Daphne Goldman Eimi S. Figlio Carlos M. Bollar Richard W. Nenno (Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP)
