

Archer Estate and Trust Litigation Attorneys to Present at the COANJ Annual Conference

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

09.21.2023

Location: Galloway, New Jersey

Donald Craig, Anthony LaRatta, Melissa Dibble and Steven Mignogna will present at this year's Constitutional Officers Association of New Jersey (COANJ) Surrogate's Section's Annual Convention at the Seaview Hotel in Galloway, New Jersey. The two part panel will take place on September 21, 2023 from 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM.

The first hour, "Developing Trends in Probate Law", is a review of recent cases which impact estate litigation generally and practice in the Surrogate's Court and/or the Superior Court, Chancery Division, Probate Part specifically. The program material consists of a bound set of over forty case summaries with a table of contents. The speakers will focus on six cases.

The second hour, "The Exercise of Judicial Discretion in the Surrogates' Courts: Understanding the Unique Position of the Surrogate in the New Jersey Judiciary and the Statutes, Cases and Court Rules Which Guide the Operation of the Surrogates' Courts and the Exercise of Judicial Discretion." presents an analysis of (1) the provisions within the New Jersey Constitution and Statutes which establish the office and guide its operation and funding, (2) statutes which allow a County to create policies which impact the operation of the Surrogate's Court, and the cases which limit such authority to the judiciary and (3) the exercise of judicial discretion to common issues in the Surrogates' Courts when the existing authority provides no clear answer.
