

Will Contests

Overview

A common type of probate litigation is the Will contest. Trust disputes are also common. Our attorneys provide savvy representation in a wide variety of cases, from basic to complex, including those receiving local, regional, and national media coverage.

Claims in Will contests can include:

- Undue Influence
- Noncompliance with formalities
- Breach of fiduciary duty
- Revocation
- Lack of capacity
- Fraud
- Forgery
- Mistake

We work diligently to seek a prompt resolution to disputes, while protecting and advancing our clients' interests at all times.
