

Cary M. Lenkeit

Chief Financial Officer

 856.616.6157

 clenkeit@archerlaw.com

Overview

Cary is the firm's Chief Financial Officer and is responsible for managing the financial operations of the firm. These functions include financial reporting, billing, budgeting, taxes, banking relationships, and forecasting in addition to the financial analysis of timekeepers, clients and matters. Prior to joining Archer, Cary had 28 years of prior legal financial management experience and 2 years of public accounting experience at PwC. He is an active member of the Association of Legal Administrators (ALA), the AICPA (American Institute of CPAs), and the NJCPA (New Jersey Society of CPAs). Cary is a licensed CPA in New Jersey and graduated from Duke University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics and earned a Masters in Accounting Science degree from The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Credentials

Education

- University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, MA, Accounting Science
- Duke University, BA

Offices

- Voorhees, NJ