

Anthony La Ratta to Present “Judicial Accountings in the Probate Part”

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

01.22.2024

Location: Online.

Anthony La Ratta, Archer Estate & Trust Litigation attorney, will present a New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE) program on New Jersey judicial accounting procedures in the Probate Part, Court Rules, statutes, and case law.

Program: Judicial Accountings in the Probate Part

When: Monday, January 22 from 9:00 a.m. – 12:35 p.m.

Where: Online.

Overview: The program is for attorneys who settle estates and administer or advise on the administration of estates. It aims to clarify the terms, concepts, and procedures involved in fiduciary accounting and estate administration to help you determine the necessary valuations and allocations, prepare the proper schedules, make the correct distributions, and, when necessary, file a judicial accounting.
