

Melissa Osorio Dibble Appointed to ACTEC Diversity, Equity and Inclusivity Committee

Press Releases

01.08.2024

Archer partner, Melissa Osorio Dibble, was recently appointed to the Diversity, Equity and Inclusivity Committee of The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC). She will serve a 3-year term. Earlier this year, Melissa was elected by the Board of Regents of The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel as a Fellow.

The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) is an organization of trust and estate lawyers and law professors in the United States and around the world. ACTEC's peer-elected Fellows are at the top of their profession, committed to maintaining excellence in the trust and estate legal field and to continually improving the practice of trust and estate law.

In her practice, Melissa handles all varieties of probate, general equity, and Orphans' Court matters, including will contests, breach of fiduciary duty actions, trust modifications, and matters involving the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act and the Slayer Statute. She represents institutions and individuals, including banks, universities, executors, trustees, beneficiaries of estates and trusts, and intestate heirs.

Active in the legal community, Melissa holds two leadership positions in the American Bar Association Section of Real Property, Trust and Estate Law, and is a past president of the Estate and Financial Planning Council of Southern New Jersey. She regularly speaks on developments in estate and trust litigation and has published articles on the doctrine of writings intended as wills and the Uniform Trust Code.
